How YOU can Help

By giving a donation.

By becoming an Annual Subscriber.

By making the Hospital known to other philanthropic persons.

PRIVILEGES OF DONORS

£1,000 entitles the donor to name a bed in perpetuity.

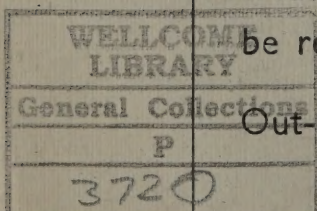

£100 entitles the donor to a Life Governorship of the Hospital.

A subscription of one guinea or more, annually, constitutes the giver a Governor of the Hospital as long as the subscription is paid.

NOTES REGARDING PATIENTS

No subscribers' or other letters are required by patients needing treatment, but patients in whom Governors are interested may be recommended for special consideration.

Out-patients are seen at the Hospital daily at 1.30 p.m.

OLD MATURED
DRY GIN

Mellowed by maturity, Booth's dry gin is soft and smooth to the palate. First of all it is TREBLY distilled to remove every possible trace of impurity. It is then matured in sherry casks, a process which results in two important features: the pale golden colour of the gin and the removal of all harshness and rawness

YOU want Best Seats

WE have them

MOST people know that this slogan is literally true and that the nominal Keith Prowse booking fee reserves the best available seats for any London entertainment but do you know that Keith Prowse branches are authorised travel agencies issuing railway tickets on demand (without booking fees) and specialising in cruising and offer an unrivalled selection in the matter of wireless sets, radiograms, records, in fact, everything musical?

All Saints' Hospital

Twenty-five years in the Service of Suffering Humanity

Founded by the late E. Canny Ryall, F.R.C.S.I.

What is All Saints' Hospital?

It is a special Hospital—the only one of its kind in South London—treating exclusively all diseases of the kidneys, bladder, prostate, etc., including cancer and tuberculosis of these organs.

It has 55 beds for in-patients (14 temporarily closed for lack of funds), including four private wards for patients of moderate means ; also a spacious department for out-patients.

What is the Hospital Doing?

It is treating 600 new in-patients and 1,500 new out-patients every year.

It is providing specialised treatment for these patients, and as a result of pioneer work has diminished the severity of many operative procedures and reduced the period of in-patient residence necessary for treatment.

It makes a special point, where possible, of methods of treatment which do not involve a cutting operation.

It gives the most kindly consideration and attention to all its patients, irrespective of class or creed.

What does the Hospital Need?

It needs £22,000 to clear off its debt on the Building and Maintenance Funds.

It needs £2,000 of new annual income to enable it to make ends meet, and to maintain and extend its work.

It needs £2,000 to modernise the X-ray Department.

It needs £3,000 to carry out other improvements and extensions, to open the wards at present closed through lack of funds.

THE STORY OF THE FILM

True to the century-old legend, the little Italian Duchy of Lucco lived for one thing only—music—and a debt of ten million crowns due to Austria remained unpaid. The demands of Austria's Ambassador became so pressing, however, that Lucco's Princess Regent, to meet the situation, banned all music from the State until the people worked and paid their debts. Mario Carlini, Lucco's enthralling tenor and national hero, returning to give his annual concert, was staggered by the situation. With the aid of bandits and Jonah J. Whistler, an American journalist, the concert was eventually held—in secret—only for Carlini, Jonah Whistler, and his daughter, Sadie, to be thrown into jail as a result. With Lucco in revolt, however, the Princess was forced to surrender, particularly when Carlini organised a State Opera, money poured into the Duchy, and Austria's debt was paid. The Princess herself attended the opening of the Opera and gazed with pride that was rather more personal than national at Mario Carlini, the Opera's great star.

The City, not the West, has been selected for our first branch because :

My experience shows that the standard of dress associated with the pre-war club man of my early days in business has passed to the big men in the financial, shipping and business circles of the City of London.

Traffic congestion makes journeys for fittings
"up West" a costly matter for a busy man, and as far as I could make out, the tip-top quality man was poorly catered for until we opened a branch at

To the many City men who attend this Charity
